How will Maryland Fare When another Hurricane Harvey Comes Our Way?

Jesse Iliff, Esq. will detail the answer: the more forest we protect, the better off we will be.

With years of environmental litigation experience, having provided services to community groups and non-profit organizations through the Chesapeake Legal Foundation, Jesse came well prepared to be the "South Riverkeeper" for the Federation. Their Mission is to protect, preserve, restore and celebrate the South River and its interdependent living communities. Jesse obtained his juris doctorate from the University of Maryland with a Certificate of Concentration in Environmental Law.

The South River is a 10-mile-long tributary of the Chesapeake Bay in Anne Arundel Count. It lies south of the Severn River, east of the Patuxent River, and north of the West and Rhode Rivers, and drains into the massive Chesapeake Bay. The State's aquifers already have trouble keeping up with demand even as flooding continues. He says "the more forest we protect the better off we will be".

Join us to understand the outcome of the 2018 Maryland General Assembly bill to strengthen the State's Forest Conservation Act. It was meant to protect forests, empower local governments and require honest accounting of the costs of forest cleared during development. Where do we go from here? Please note, we will be back in the COASTAL Room on the ground floor.

VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE

SOS is not just a club, but a community helping each other on land and sea. Thank you for the privilege of serving as your Commodore for the next year I am joined by Sandy Rosswork as Vice Commodore, Cathy Laws as Secretary and Teresa Scofield as Treasurer. Dana Stoffregen, Jan Warfield, Coco Lanquetuit, and Jerry Axler are additional new Board members and Janet Gonski remains. Thank you Alan Osterholm, Gretchen Young, Joan Tannen for your service.

The Club is in good shape with good policies and well organized committees thanks to the Commodore, Officers, Board, Committee Chairs and numerous volunteers throughout the year. Janet Gonski as Commodore has led with grace and skill for two years. Thank you, Janet both personally and on behalf of the club

The following have agreed to continue as committee chairs, Ned Schwartz, First Mates, Laura Gwinn and Noreen McGuire, Cruising; John McDonald, Database; Shirley Brooks-Hollandusky, Newsletter; Mary Ellen Murphy, Social; John Rogers, Skippers Advisory; Donna Kachura, Membership; Suzanne Vaughn, Brunch, Kathy Haven, Bareboat; Beth Dumesco is now Chair of Public Relations rather than Safety; Joan Tannen is Chair of Safety. Thank you to Doug Townsend, Skippers Advisory, and Beth Dumesco for their past service as Committee Chairs.

Education chair is open so please step up if you are interested. Education is in great shape as Lorraine Fassett already has a number of regional fireside chats and Irene Aronian has Spring Training in hand to occur March 16, 2018.

Suzanne Vaughn's latest Brunch with Dr. Higgs talk on the volunteer Smithsonian archeology digs on the Rhode River was great and well attended.

Check Fleet Exercises list of events in the Whiskerpole for the December 6th Brunch, the December 8th Parade of Lights party, the December 9th Brunch on Environmental concerns and other events. (Thank you Ned Schwartz for organizing this list each month.) Put the January 26th Awards Banquet on your calendar and send any nominations for the Awards to Sandy Rosswork, Vice Commodore.

Singles on Sailboats is a great club whose members share a passion for sailing. I hope each of you are sharing the great things with others and encouraging them to join.

What is your favorite sailing memory? Mine is at the helm coming out of the Patuxent with the sun, the sails, and the winds, as we were going over hull speed!

Becky

WATCH THE LIGHTS PARADE IN COMFORT

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8

Watch the 40 or more boats of the Lights Parade burst into light on Saturday, December 8, at 6:00 PM. Enjoy the parade in warmth and comfort from a waterfront room at the Annapolis (Marriott) Waterfront Hotel. See this wonderful show of splendid color and twinkling lights with each boat decorated in a Christmas theme. Avoid the cold and wintry night and join your friends at the Annapolis (Marriott) Waterfront Hotel to watch the Parade.

Drinks and eats will be available in the room starting at about 5:00. Our overview of the Lights Parade will be fantastic from a large balcony which gives a view of "Ego Alley" and the immediate waterfront. This is a great opportunity for photographers to capture a winning view of this colorful holiday event.

Cost for this event will be $40.00 per person. Send your check made out to SOS, to Sandy Rosswork (511 Chesapeake Ave, Annapolis, 21403). Beer, wine, sodas and sandwiches will be provided. Participants are asked to bring an appetizer or dessert. Call or email Sandy Rosswork for more information and to sign up and indicate what you will bring. Don't wait too long....attendance must be limited due to the size of the room!! Call 410-267-8739 or email [sgrosswork@aol.com].

Parking will not be provided at the hotel. Park in Eastport and walk across the bridge, or park at one of the city garages and take the free shuttle into town. The hotel room will be open from about 4:30 PM. The Parade starts at 6:00 and the Spa Creek Bridge will open about then to let the boats through. Traffic will be heavy as time gets closer to the start of the parade.

Oh yeah.....what happens to the room when the party is over?? Well, the plan is to draw a name from those who have signed up and..... the lucky winners will be able to stay for the night!

Cruising Committee End of Season Report

The November 10th Cruising Appreciation Dinner marked the official end of the cruising season. As was stated at the dinner "it was the best of times, it was the worst of times." It sure seemed like one day of good sailing brought several days of bad weather. But, we can celebrate the 13 FMs who brought their skills on 33 occasions to help out skippers and new members. Bill Knapp was the top-sailing FM with 7 sails. The top sailing skippers were Emil Becker (3 weekend, 6 day sails) and Ron Pence (8 weekend, 1 day sail). We had a total of 29 skippers sail with crew on 120 sails! And a total of 590 sailors!

Although the sailing season is over, the next couple months are busy for Cruising Committee. We will be planning next year's schedule, which should be complete by mid-to end-December. If you have ANY suggestions, please feel free to contact us at cruisingchair@singlesonsailboats.org. Although the schedule will be mostly complete by the time you read this, it can (and often is) always be edited/changed before finalized.

If your New Year's Resolution (never too early!) is to contribute to the Club to make it a healthier, thriving organization,

Awards, Awards, and More Awards!

At the January 26th Awards Dinner, SOS will recognize four members for their significant contributions of time, energy and talent (the serious member recognition awards) to our all-volunteer Club. Members will also be recognized for contributing whimsical, good-natured humor through their foibles, bloopers, and flim flams (the Jibe Ho awards). Nominations from the membership are requested and should include nominee's name, award for which she/he is nominated, and a description of why the nominee qualifies for the particular award. Nominations should be sent to Vice Commodore Sandy Rosswork vicecommodore@singlesonsailboats.org no later than January 1st

Commodore's Award: The Board of Directors established the annual Commodore's award so that the highest ranking officer of the Club could extend public recognition and many thanks to an individual who has made significant contributions in fostering the goals of Singles on Sailboats, and who continues to contribute to many aspects of the Club. Nominations for the award are accepted from the general membership.

Ed Klein Member of the Year Award: Singles on Sailboats owes its beginnings to Ed Klein. He co-sponsored the first rafts of two or three boats, the first brunches, the first social gatherings. But Ed offered more. He would teach you to sail without regard for your past experience or future expectations. Ed would take you aboard his boat, The Mai Kai, give you the helm, and develop your skills. He would challenge you to extend your horizons. He was one of those unique individuals who shared his joy of sailing with you. Ed sailed beyond this world in 1987. Nominations for the award come from the general membership.

Elinor W. "Elli" Abramson Award for Contributions to SOS Education Programs:

Eli Abramson created many new educational programs for the members of Singles on Sailboats. After serving on the Board of Directors for two years, she gradually built an all-encompassing education program that provides the opportunity to broaden one's knowledge of sailing at minimal cost. She transformed the spring education program so that it attracts more participants than any other SOS event. Elli sailed beyond this world in 1992. Nominations are accepted from the general membership, and the Education Committee Chairperson(s) recommends the recipient.

Rookie of the Year Award: Singles on Sailboats attracts many new sailors each year. The Board of Directors established the annual Rookie of the Year Award to recognize the individual who, in his or her first year sailing with SOS, demonstrates superior interest in and learning about sailing, and who becomes highly involved in one or more of the many SOS programs. Nominations for the award come from the general membership.

You Ought to be in Pictures: The 2018 SOS Photo Contest

Have you taken stellar shots of this year's SOS activities? If so, keep on shooting! If not, start taking photos to be submitted to the 2018 Photo Contest.

1. Entries must be taken at an SOS event in 2018 by the member of SOS submitting the photo. A photo does not necessarily have that event as a theme (a picture of Annie Anchorage at a raft-up or the sunset seen from a raft-up is acceptable, even though there is nothing in the picture to prove that it was taken at a raft-up or cruise.) We are on the "Honor System". An official SOS event can be cruising, day-sail, a brunch, seminar, destination cruise, etc. Happy Hours are not included.

2. Each photo must identify at which SOS event it was taken and the name of the photographer.

3. Photos must be submitted by midnight on 21 Dec 2018.

4. This is an amateur photographer contest. Professional photographers - i.e. anyone who earns more than 50 percent of his or her annual income from photography – are excluded from the contest.

5. Each member may submit up to a total of eight (8) photos.

6. Photos may be edited to achieve color balance that reflects the scene as you observed it. Cropping is also acceptable. Heavily manipulated photos are not eligible.

Categories: People, Bay scenes (including sunsets), Sailboats (sailboats under sail, raft-ups), and Destination Cruises. The Destination Cruises category includes photos taken during the actual SOS destination cruises and photos taken on days when traveling prior to or after a destination cruise.

Other Useful Information: Submit your photos in digital format. Send photos attached to emails or mail a disk that includes the photos. Submit photos in high resolution. The photos will be enlarged to 5" x 7", so if the photo is fuzzy, it reduces your chance of winning. Photos not submitted in the 5" x 7" format will be cropped to that format. Smart phone photos may be submitted. Please select high resolution for photos in your smart phone setup.

Judging: The photo contest managers will put your photos in the correct category. There will be 1st through 3rd place awards for each of the People, Bay Scenes, and Sailboats categories. There will be 1st through 6th place awards for the Destination Cruises category. There will also be a Grand Prize award. The photos will be judged by Don Dement, an Annapolis-area professional photographer from outside the club. The judging will be blind, so the judge will not know which photographer took any given photo.

2018.sos.photos@gmail.com (please do not send entries to our personal emails.)

SCUTTLEBUTT

(A communal water cask around which sailors traded gossip)

Carole Lowry has finally had the cast and brace removed from her right arm but is still a little uncomfortable. It was just in time to close the boat for the season, having missed most of it. She is still slogging through therapy to produce flexibility in a 4" steel plate and 5 screws to the phalanges. She and Gil have been enjoying some wonderful trips to Colorado, Texas, and Montreal Canada.

Jon Bernheimer is back from five days of helping a friend take his boat from Solomons, MD to Beaufort, NC via the Intra-Coastal Waterway. It was the first time for Jon, and less difficult than he thought it would be. There was adequate depth the entire trip, and a rather desolate beauty in the surroundings. There were plenty of friendly people on other boats, and many with their friendly dogs.

Barb Shoemaker and John Rogers are trying the live-aboard lifestyle, traveling the ICW to Florida and beyond. At writing time, they were in Myrtle Beach. They are traveling with 18 other sailboats under Wally Moran's Sail to the Sun.

Jim Huber has been hired to take Sam Owings boat to Puerto Rico. He will be leaving sometime in November.

Geri Walker and five others were scheduled to do the Canal du Midi which was destroyed by storm three days before they left. They had planned a one-way Castelnau to Cassafieres on the Mediterranean. Le Boat put them on the Aquitaine, round trip, but there was not a lot to see. All of the lock houses were shuttered, and there were no gardens. They did go over the aqueduct which they enjoyed. Agen is an industrial city, so they didn't stop. They ate well, although most of restaurants and one museum were closed for season. There was good wine at 4 to 8 euros.

Bev Nash and Oren Wolfe picked up a brand-new Thor 22-foot RV in May at the factory in Wakarusa, Indiana to deliver it to Great Alaskan Holidays in Anchorage Alaska for their summer rental season. The unit started falling apart almost immediately and was so noisy they could not talk to each other or listen to music while driving. But they still had a great time, visiting Mount Rushmore and Devil's Tower National Parks, camping in spectacularly beautiful campgrounds, seeing all kinds of wildlife and visiting long time friends in Saskatchewan and Alaska. They also had Canadian Royal Mounted Police come to their rescue when a broken mud flap support was causing problems shortly before crossing from Canada into Alaska. The trip certainly convinced them that they never want to own an RV! Bev has lots and lots of photos, if anyone is interested.

Wonderful Winter Fireside Chats Await You

Combine a welcoming home, good food and drinks along with exciting and informative programs that will be presented by various, multifaceted members of SOS. The New Year starts with one on January 6 as Kathy Haven takes us on a round trip sail to Trinidad. Then on January 19 there will be two presentations, one in Annapolis and one in Rockville. In Annapolis Dennis Krizek will relate the perilous journeys of the skipjack, Wilma Lee and in Rockville Peter and Joan Stogis will share their experiences while sailing in the higher latitudes of Iceland, Greenland, Svalbard and Alaska.

For those living in the Frederick and West Howard County area Janet Gonski will offer the opportunity to view and make your own nautical art on February 9. On February 23 in Bethesda Emil Becker presents his transit through the Panama Canal by sailboat. Also on that date, Sandy Rosswork will take us into the watery environment of southwestern Africa with its spectacular flora and fauna.

On March 2, in Rockville, Debra Roane will offer another opportunity to view the photos of the African adventure. In Annapolis on March 9, Anne George will fill us in on sex in the Chesapeake Bay as it relates to oysters, crabs and jellyfish. Oh my!

Each one of these presentations is guaranteed to ease the blahs of winter so check the Fleet Exercises and Shore Leave section of your Whiskerpole and sign up early. You will be glad you did.
